

Announcing an exciting new project from the Presbyterian Committee on Congregational Song...

Interesting hymnal facts from the Presbyterian Committee on Congregational Song

1. The official Presbyterian hymnal currently in use was published in 1990. It took over five years to complete!
2. The Presbyterian Church has published a new hymnal roughly every twenty years, or about every generation. Former volumes include The Hymnal (1933), The Hymnbook (1955), The Worshipbook (1972), and The Presbyterian Hymnal (1990).
3. The cover design of the new Presbyterian resource for congregational song will be _____ ?
Let us know what you think!

Visit www.PresbyterianHymnal.org to share your ideas and catch up on all the latest news about the new Presbyterian hymnal.

Please join with us in asking God to guide our efforts to produce a new hymnal that preserves the best of the past while incorporating refreshing new selections that will inspire us all to sing God's praises for generations to come.